ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a writ of Mandamus declaring the inaction of the respondents in appointing the petitioner on compassionate grounds in the respondents' Corporation in any suitable post as illegal, arbitrary and violative of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India.

2. The husband of the writ petitioner died on 13.11.2002 while working in the third respondent's Corporation. After the death of her husband, she gave a representation on 03.01.2003 to the respondents requesting them to appoint her on compassionate grounds in any suitable post. Subsequently, she sent reminders. But no action has been taken. Hence the present writ petition.

3. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for respondents.

4. Appropriate decision has to be taken by the respondents in accordance with law as to whether the petitioner is eligible for appointment on compassionate grounds. Therefore, without entering into the merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of directing the respondents to take appropriate decision on the application of the petitioner, so as to appoint her on compassionate grounds. No costs.
